Hello From the Flatmates

We are an award-winning bar and restaurant group that creates beautiful venues to make you feel like you're walking into someone's home, styling it on a fictional flatshare. We're best known for throwing weekly house parties, dinner parties and private events.

Our story started eight years ago when we began as a pop-up in Notting Hill. Since then, we've opened four amazing, permanent venues across London and won multiple awards, including Best Bar in London by Tatler Magazine and Best Bottomless Brunch by the Evening Standard. We're incredibly proud of what we have created and would love to show you around!

The Little Blue Door is based just a short walk from the leafy Parsons Green, the heart of Fulham, and has become a local hot-spot for great house parties, date nights and weekend brunches. Here, we aim to create an authentic, homely, and unpretentious environment for guests to eat, drink and dance in the setting of an epic house party.
